Data Sharing Statement

Data
Data available: Yes
Data types: Other (please specify)
Additional Information: A deidentified dataset may be made available, commensurate with contemporary federal, state, and local laws. Data that contains personally identifiable information may be made available to those who receive approval from the applicable institutional review board at the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.
How to access data: If this manuscript is accepted for publication, this information will be provided, commensurate with U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention policies and procedures.
When available: With publication

Supporting Documents
Document types: None

Additional Information
Who can access the data: as noted above
Types of analyses: as noted above
Mechanisms of data availability: as noted above
Any additional restrictions: as noted above